

I do not think that the public interest is served by further relaxing rules about media ownership. If Powell has any balls or integrity, he should understand that the situation Minot, ND had around Clear Channel stations and a local emergency is only ONE reason to resist the media moguls and their lobbyists.